Lab 107B in the Computer Center and the Information Literacy Classroom on the Mezzanine floor of the RFK library have been reserved for prospective graduating seniors to take the following three assessments from January 13th through February 29th:

- 1) Critical Thinking Skills Test (CCTST)
- 2) Quantitative Literacy and Reasoning Assessment (QLRA)
- 3) Threshold Achievement Test in Information Literacy (TATIL)

- Choose from among these times/dates to come take the test and expect to stay 50-55 minutes per test.

- To fulfill this administrative requirement for graduation, you must take all three tests. Failure to comply will result in the holding of transcripts and diploma upon graduation.

Testing Schedule: Please review the schedule carefully as there is a high demand for Lab 107B and the Information Literacy Classroom during the semester. To take a test after 5:00pm or on a Saturday, you must make a reservation before 5:00pm of the previous workday.

Saturday Testing Schedule

- 10:00am – 11:00am
Critical Thinking
- 11:05am – 12:05pm
