

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

October 31, 2024

For more information, contact:

Jonas D. Macapinlac
Chief Marketing and Communications Officer
University of Guam
Tel: 671-735-2944
Email: jmac@triton.uog.edu

UOG Students, Early Registration for Spring 2025 Starts Nov. 6

The University of Guam is pleased to announce early registration for the Fañomnåkan (Spring) 2025 semester will begin on Wednesday, Nov. 6.

Early registration is by class level and on a first come, first serve basis. For early registration dates, download the Fañomnåkan (Spring) 2025 and Tinalo' Intersession Course Schedule at: <https://www.uog.edu/admissions/course-schedule>

Why Register Early?

- Secure preferred schedules. Early registration affords students the opportunity to secure their desired class schedule, ensuring a fit that best accommodates their personal and academic lives, while keeping them on track for graduation.
- Plan ahead. Registering early allows for more substantial time to consult with academic advisors, aiding students in making well-informed decisions that align with their coursework and future career aspirations.
- Reduce Stress: By registering early, students can avoid the last-minute rush, leading to a smoother and less stressful start to the semester.

To register for the Fañomnåkan (Spring) 2025 semester, visit <https://registration.uog.edu>.

Registration for the Tinalo' 2024 Intersession will begin on December 2.

For more information, contact the UOG Admissions and Records office at (671) 735-2214 or via email at admitme@triton.uog.edu.

###

Attachments:

Photo

Fañomnåkan (Spring) 2025 and Tinalo' Intersession Course Schedule (PDF)

Photo Caption:

2024-UOG-Student.jpg - The University of Guam announced that early registration for the Fañomnåkan (Spring) 2025 semester will begin on Wednesday, Nov. 6.