Question 1: Can you please clarify how travel costs to Guam itself will be covered for any contractors traveling from the United States mainland? If travel to any Pacific entity is to originate from Guam how will travel to Guam be covered for any contractors outside of Guam? Is there an expectation that the contractor is to cover their own travel to Guam?

Answer: UOG: As specified, if required, travel expenses to the entity will be separate expenses from the consultation bid. Travel expenses will originate from Guam based on our contracts with the entities. The bidder can indicate that they are available to travel to the entity for on-site consultation from the U.S. mainland should travel funds be available.
